

Delta DE212

FAILSAFE

Wired Aircraft Refuelling Deadman

Use

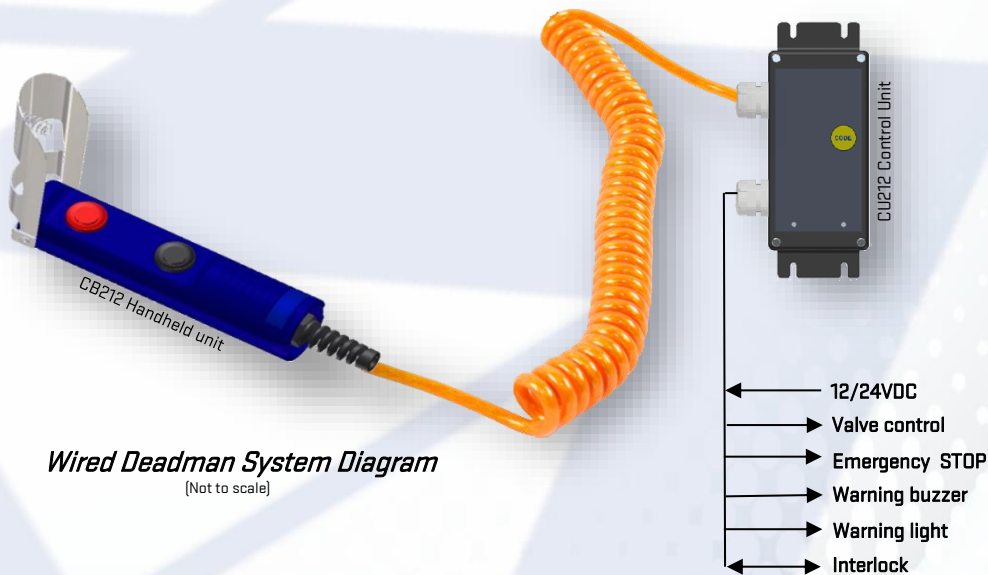

The Delta 212 is a rugged and sturdy, purpose-built wired deadman control for ground refuelling trucks and dispensers.

Key features/advantages

- Proven system: More than 15 years of operational experience in harse environments.
- Safer operation: Remote instant shutdown.
- Easy installation and operation.
- Integrated timer: No extra timer unit needed.

Installation

Easy installation. Installation guidelines for both transmitter and receiver unit are included.

Compliance standards

This equipment complies with the following standards:
Europe/EU: ERC 70-03 EN 300-400. USA: FCC 15.249.
Japan: STD-T66.
It is in accordance to EU's demands in order to label the equipment with CE.

Handheld unit can be ATEX approved as an option.

Technical information

- All units have a failsafe design.
- Two-wire coiled cable.
- Cable in high-visibility orange safety color.
- Cable length 14m fully stretched.
- Built-in timer function.
- Lightweight and robust design.
- Handheld unit has emergency STOP for remote and instant shutdown of operation.
- Operating voltage: 11 to 27V DC.

Warranty

1 year warranty from date of delivery.

Delta RC AS reserves the rights to, without further notice, make changes to the product, improve reliability, functions and design.

Delta Remote Control AS, Søndre Kullerød 4A, NO-3241 Sandefjord
(+47) 33 44 83 90 - hello@deltarc.no - www.deltarc.no

- Wireless Remote Control Technology -

Art.No. 02876

www.deltarc.no

